Declaration of Consent regarding recording, processing, saving and distributing recordings of the online Lorentz Center workshop “Crosslinguistic speech patterns: biosocial markers of psychiatric disorders”

Explanation
This consent form involves providing your consent to recording (video and sound material, hereafter referred to as: “the material”) the following activities of the online/hybrid Lorentz Center workshop “Crosslinguistic speech patterns: biosocial markers of psychiatric disorders”:

a) Talks (one session).
b) Panel discussions (two sessions).
c) Short “sharing + feedback” presentations (six sessions).
d) Final reflections (two sessions).

This statement clarifies which personal information will be collected during the processing of the material, how your personal information is used and the rights you have.

You will appear recognizable in the recording, which is why the material could be qualified as personal information. The material is recorded, processed, saved, distributed and shown for the following objectives:

1. The activities “a)”-“d)” would be used to retrieve information to write down the scientific report of the workshop, if needed.
2. The activities “a)”-“d)” would be used to retrieve information to write down the draft of a scientific meeting-report on the workshop, acknowledging all attendees and their contributions in the “acknowledgements” section of the draft.
3. The activity “d)” would be live streamed as part of the activities of the DISCORSE in psychosis consortium (https://discourseinpsychosis.org/).

(For online attendees only: if you agree with recording of the sessions but do not wish to be visible and/or heard, you have the right to close your camera and/or microphone at all times and ask your questions through the chat function. This applies to participants who do not have to provide a presentation).

Leiden University will take appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect your personal information towards loss or any other form of illegal processing. The material is recorded on Zoom, an online platform administered by Leiden University. The material is distributed on Research Drive and will be accessible for participants of the workshop only.

The scientific organizers Iris Sommer, Hugo Corona Hernández, and Lena Palaniyappan will be responsible for saving and distributing the recordings. The material will only be saved for as long as it serves its purpose, so from November 4\textsuperscript{th}, 2022 until November 4\textsuperscript{th}, 2023, and will be destroyed afterwards.

You have right to contact us via info@lorentzcenter.nl to request insight into the recording you cooperated in and/or your declaration of consent. You have right to limit the declaration of consent and/or to withdrawal. We will handle your request following the ‘General Data Protection Regulation’ (GDPR). You have right to file a complaint at the Data Protection Officer of Leiden University (privacy@bb.leidenuniv.nl) and/or at the Authority Personal Data.

\textit{Declaration of consent}

Hereby I declare that the Lorentz Center provided sufficient information regarding the recording and I have read the available information thoroughly. I have had sufficient occasions to ask questions regarding the recording. My questions were answered sufficiently. I have had sufficient time to consider my participation in this recording.

I am aware that my participation in this recording is voluntary. I know that I have right to decide at any moment to withdrawal my participation or to cancel my participation. I do not have to provide a reason for my decision.

I agree to the recording and provide Iris Sommer, Hugo Corona Hernández, Lena Palaniyappan, the Lorentz Center, and the Leiden University the right to save this material, to process, distribute and show the material as explained in the procedure above.
