Curricula Vitae as Reproductive Interfaces in Research

12 - 16 December 2022, Leiden, the Netherlands

The Lorentz Center organizes international workshops for researchers in all scientific disciplines. Its aim is to create an atmosphere that fosters collaborative work, discussions and interactions. For registration see: www.lorentzcenter.nl

This workshop is part of our collaboration with NIAS and aims to stimulate research in the humanities & social sciences.

Curricula Vitae as Reproductive Interfaces in Research

Academic CV formats have historically co-evolved with scientific and scholarly practices, mediating the daily work of researchers in a myriad of ways. Poster design: SuperNova Studios NL

Topics

• Feedback Loops between CV Formats and Researcher Biographies and Research Activities
• Experiments with Alternative CV Formats to Promote a Broader View of Scientific Excellence
• Large Scale CV Data as an Opportunity for Studying Problematic Developments in Research

Scientific Organizers

• Wolfgang Kaltenbrunner, Leiden University
• Sarah de Rijcke, Leiden University
• Inge van der Weijden, Leiden University
• Alex Csiszar, Harvard University
• Michaela Strinzel, Swiss National Science Foundation

The Lorentz Center organizes international workshops for researchers in all scientific disciplines. Its aim is to create an atmosphere that fosters collaborative work, discussions and interactions. For registration see: www.lorentzcenter.nl

This workshop is part of our collaboration with NIAS and aims to stimulate research in the humanities & social sciences.