

Declaration of Consent regarding recording, processing, saving and distributing recordings of the online Lorentz Center workshop ‘Learning from Insulators: New Trends in the Study of Conductivity of Metals’

This consent form involves providing your consent to recording (video and sound material, hereafter referred to as: “the material”) of the minicourses and talks of the online Lorentz Center workshop Learning from Insulators: New Trends in the Study of Conductivity of Metals. This statement clarifies which personal information will be collected during the processing of the material, how your personal information is used and the rights you have.

You will appear recognizable in the recording, which is why the material could be qualified as personal information. The material is recorded, processed, saved, distributed and shown for the following objectives: creating a video library to facilitate the onboarding of new researchers and help further interactions between members of the different communities. If you agree with recording of the sessions but do not wish to be visible and/or heard, you have the right to close your camera and/or microphone at all times and ask your questions through the chat function. This applies to participants who do not have to provide a presentation.

Leiden University will take appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect your personal information towards loss or any other form of illegal processing. The material is recorded on MS Teams, an online platform administered by Leiden University. The material is distributed on the Research Drive of the University and will be accessible for everyone. The Lorentz Center/Leiden University does not take any responsibility for the distribution of the recordings on any other site than the Research Drive.

The scientific organizers Marcello Seri, Max Lein, Giuseppe De Nittis, and Constanza Rojas-Molina, will be responsible for saving and distributing the recordings. The material will only be saved on Research Drive for a period of one year and will be destroyed afterwards. Separately, the scientific organizers will be responsible for making the recordings publicly available on the Internet through some third-party platform (e.g. Youtube). The recordings will be stored there indefinitely, conditioned to the speakers and participants preferences.

You have right to contact us via privacy@fsw.leidenuniv.nl to request insight into the recording you cooperated in and/or your declaration of consent. You have right to limit the declaration of consent and/or to withdrawal. We will handle your request following the ‘General Data Protection Regulation’ (GDPR). You have right to file a complaint at the Data Protection Officer of Leiden University (privac@bb.leidenuniv.nl) and/or at the Authority Personal Data.

Hereby I declare that Linda Zwinkels, (workshop coordinator of the Lorentz Center) provided sufficient information regarding the recording and I have read the available information thoroughly. I have had sufficient occasions to ask questions regarding the recording. My questions were answered sufficiently. I have had sufficient time to consider my participation in this recording.

I am aware that my participation in this recording is voluntary. I know that I have the right to decide at any moment to withdraw my participation or to cancel my participation. I do not have to provide a reason for my decision.

I agree to the recording and provide Marcello Seri, Max Lein, Giuseppe De Nittis, Constanza Rojas-Molina the right to save this material, to process, distribute and show the material as explained in the procedure above.

Below you can indicate whether you agree or disagree with the statement above.

I declare that I indemnify Leiden University, the Lorentz Center and Marcello Seri, Max Lein, Giuseppe De Nittis, Constanza Rojas-Molina against any claim to my portrait right for the recording.
