

Final Programme

Day 1, Ethics in Linguistics: overview of the field

- 8.30-9.30 Arrival and registration
- 9.30-9.45 Welcome by Lorentz Center
- 9.45-10.00 Introduction
Workshop theme introduction by the organizers (10 min) and housekeeping issues (5 min)
- 10.00-11.00 Brief self-introductions (all workshop participants, 3 min. max)
- 11.00-12.45 Short presentations
Ethics as central to all stages of the research cycle 15 minute presentations (+ 5 min. Q&A) by
1. Lise Dobrin - collection/ethnography;
2. Sonja Eisenbeiss - collection/experiments;
3. Jai MacKenzie - collection/internet;
4. Nick Thieberger - archiving & publishing;
5. Louise McNally - funding bodies
- 12.45- 14.00 Lunch
- 14.00-15.30 Roundtable session
Universality and scope of ethics in linguistics
5 roundtables x 4 participants, all address the following questions:
How is ethics conceptualized in relation to these stages, what does it encompass, who decides, and how/by whom is ethics currently enforced (chaired by Lise, Sonja, Anna, Nick, Louise; participants self-assign)
- 15.30-16.00 Coffee break
- 16.00-16.30 Brief group reports
5 roundtable chairs (6 min. each)
- 16.30-17.30 Lecture
Keren Rice on "Why we need ethics in Linguistics, Whose ethics, What this encompasses, and How all this can be enforced" (hybrid event: to be streamed online to up to 80 pre-registered outside audience) (chair: Felix Ameka)
- 17.30 Wine and Cheese reception

Day 2, Ethics of working with participants & handling language data

- 8.30-9.30 Coffee and tea
- 9.30-11.00 Roundtable session
Working with participants and handling different types of data:
5 roundtables x 4 participants (practitioners of the same field from different countries encouraged to group together)

Themes:

1. urban ethnography/ chair Karatsareas,
2. experimental/ chair Parafita Couto,
3. online & data-mining/ chair MacKenzie / McNally,
4. child participants/ chair Kascelan,
5. indigenous & endangered languages/ chair Armostis / Mateo / Leonard

- 11.00 -11.15 Coffee break
- 11.15 -12.45 Roundtable session (cont.d)
Identifying priorities in each field: What would improve the situation? Informal recommendations (3+ bullet points min.)
- 12.45-14.00 Lunch
- 14.00-14.30 Brief group reports
5 roundtable chairs (6 min. each)
- 14.30-15.30 Discussion (all)
Identifying points of convergence across fields;
What would improve the situation? Informal recommendations
(chair: Lise Dobrin)
- 15.30 -16.00 Coffee break
- 16.00 -16.30 Short Presentation
Nick Thieberger on "The Tromsø Recommendations of data citation"
- 16.30-17.30 Discussion (all)
Data preservation & access (chair: Mary Linn)
- 19:00-21:00 Pizza dinner (in town)

Day 3, Ethics training and ethics recommendations for linguists

- 8.30-9.30 Coffee and tea
- 9.30-10.30 Lecture
Sarah Atkins on "Drafting the BAAL Recommendations for Good Practice" (contributor to the BAAL Recommendations) (hybrid event) (chair: MCarmen Parafita Couto)
- 10.30 -10.45 Coffee break
- 10.45 -11.45 Lecture
Lise Dobrin on "Aspirational Statements, Regulatory Compliance, Workshopping Our Worries: Bringing Ethics down from the Mount and into the Everyday"
(hybrid event) (chair: Marina Terkourafi)
- 11.45-12.45 Discussion (all)
What should be the scope of a set of guidelines for Linguistics as a field? (chair: Keren Rice)

12.45-14.00	Lunch
14.00-15.00	Lecture Wesley Leonard on "Teaching ethics" (hybrid event) (chair: Petros Karatsareas)
15.00-15.15	Coffee break
15.15-16.30	Roundtable session Institutional Review Boards/Ethics boards & training availability: overview of practices in different countries & fields 4 roundtables (participants to self-assign) chaired by Roberta D'Alessandro (NL) & Louise McNally (Spain), Spyros Armostis (Cyprus) & Dorothy Agyepong (GH), Stefan Dollinger (CA) & Anna Belew (USA), Drasko Kascelan & Sarah Atkins (UK)
16.30-17.00	Brief group reports 4 roundtable chairs (7 min. each)
17.00-18.00	Discussion (all) Discussant: Francien Dechesne (Leiden E-law) Identifying common ground among countries and fields for possible draft ethics recommendations (chair: Jai Mackenzie)
19.00	Workshop dinner at Katwijk aan Zee

Day 4, Ethics of publishing, environmental and access issues

8.30-9.30	Coffee and tea
9.30-10.30	Lecture Tim Kersjes on "From researcher to author: research integrity and publication ethics" (Research Integrity manager, Springer Nature)
10.30 -10.45	Coffee break
10.45 -12.15	Roundtable session Ethical issues relating to publishing and citing data in linguistics Roundtables chaired by workshop participants with editorial roles (e.g., Ameka, D'Alessandro, McNally, Terkourafi, Thieberger, ...)
12.15-12.45	Brief group reports 5 roundtable chairs (6 min. each)
12.45-14.00	Lunch
14.00-14.30	Short presentations Current practices by linguistics journals (up to six 5-min. presentations by participants with editorial roles, e.g., Ameka, D'Alessandro, McNally, Parafita Couto, Terkourafi, Thieberger, +more); presenters encouraged to address the points raised during the morning session & how journals address them (or not)

- 14.30-15.30 Discussion (all)
Best practices for publishing in linguistics in relation to other fields;
What would improve the situation? Informal recommendations
Discussant: Frits Rosendaal (LUMC/COPE) (chair: Felix Ameka)
- 15.30-16.00 Coffee break
- 16.00-17.00 Roundtable session
Working conditions of postgraduate, early career researchers and researchers in non-established posts
4 roundtables x 5 participants
Themes (TBC depending on concerns raised during the week):
1. Relationships with communities
2. Relationships with supervisors
3. Relationships with employers (job insecurity, pay gaps)
4. Environmental impact of our work
- 17.00-17.30 Brief group reports
4 roundtable chairs (7 min. each)

Day 5, The larger picture: funding bodies as ethics agenda setters; taking stock

- 8.30-9.30 Coffee and tea
- 9.30-11.00 Roundtable discussion
Funding bodies as ethics agenda setters and enforcers
Speakers: Louise McNally (ERC), Keren Rice (SSHRC) (chair:
Roberta D'Alessandro)
- 11.00-11.15 Coffee Break
- 11.15-12.45 Discussion (all)
Taking Stock: What have we covered and learned? What have we not covered? How do we engage in larger issues of racial, social and environmental justice? Where do we go from here?
(Chair: organizers)
- 12.45-14.00 Lunch
- 14.00-14.50 Discussion (all)
Next steps: working group, mailing list (moderators needed) & publication plans; future meetings
- 14.50-15.00 Workshop closing (organizers)
- End of the workshop