The Lorentz Center organizes international workshops for researchers in all scientific disciplines. Its aim is to create an atmosphere that fosters collaborative work, discussions and interactions. For registration see: www.lorentzcenter.nl

This workshop is part of our collaboration with NIAS and aims to stimulate research in the humanities & social sciences.

Criminal Justice Settings, Crime, and Reintegration
19 - 22 February 2024, Leiden, the Netherlands

Scientific Organizers

• Hilde Wermink, Leiden University
• Anke Ramakers, Leiden University
• Robert Apel, Rutgers University
• Mikko Aaltonen, University of Eastern Finland

Topics

• Identifying New Research Priorities in Life-Course Criminology
• Interventions for Justice-Involved Individuals
• Identifying Methodological Developments for the Study of Reintegration
• Data Opportunities and Risks Across Contexts
• Building a Multidisciplinary Research Community
• Interaction and Discussion Among Researchers and Stakeholders

Justice-involved individuals will be confronted with different intersections during their life-course in which the cycle of disadvantage in various domains may hinder successful reintegration.
