

Stochastic Systems

Workshop 16 – 19 March 2005 Leiden University

Organizers

- Lodewijk Kallenberg, Leiden
- Ger Koole, Amsterdam
- Ulrich Rieder, Ulm
- Floske Spijksma, Leiden

Invited speakers

- Onno Boxma, Eindhoven
- Hans Daduna, Hamburg
- Eugene Feinberg, New York
- Jerzy Filar, Mawson Lakes
- Serguei Foss, Edinburgh
- Ted Hill, Atlanta
- Arie Hordijk, Leiden
- Ullrich Rieder, Ulm
- Rhonda Richter, Berkeley
- Volker Schmidt, Ulm
- Adam Schwartz, Haifa
- Karel Sladky, Prague
- Sandy Stidham, Chapel Hill
- Henk Tijms, Amsterdam
- Uri Yechiali, Tel-Aviv

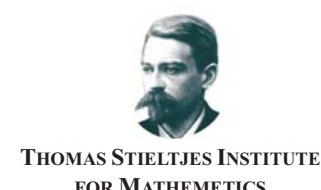

The Lorentz Center is an international study and visitors' center for Astronomy, Physics, Mathematics and Computer Sciences. Its aim is to organize workshops for scientists in an atmosphere which fosters collaborative work, discussions and interactions.

For registration see: www.lc.leidenuniv.nl

Picture: fragment of painting by D.H.W. Filarski, 'Luministisch Duinlandschap', 1913
Design: SuperNova Studio's, Delft

Koninklijke
Nederlandse
Akademie van
Wetenschappen

Lorentz center